From Mrs.Lewman’s Desk

As the weather gets colder, please make sure your students are coming to school with a jacket to wear outside during recess. We will go out for recess as long as possible.

If your child is missing any items, please have them look at the 3 tables in the hallway by the library. To make it easier to return missing items to students, please make sure items have a name in them. Items will be out on the table through November 17th and after that they will be donated.

Thank you!!

Student Council Food Drive

PTO News

PTO now has an email you may use to contact them directly. It is royertonpto@gmail.com

The Texas Roadhouse fundraiser from Monday night made $186 for our PTO fund and our Merrywood fundraiser raised almost $4,500 for our PTO fund. Awesome JOB!

Mother Son Glow Party- Saturday, November 4th from 6-8p.m. Flyer is attached.

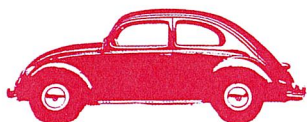

TARDINESS

We know the cooler weather and darker mornings make it hard to rise and shine. We have been experiencing a high volume of students coming in tardy in the mornings. Just a reminder that the children may be dropped off as early as 7:30 and kids need to be in their classroom by 7:50 or they will be counted tardy. Moms and Dads please set your alarms five minutes earlier. Missing 5 minutes of class means your student is missing important instructions for the day. We would like to remind parents that if your child is late, YOU will need to walk your child up to the door, ring the doorbell and sign them in. Thank you!

Parents: please, please, please!

Empty or set up your Voicemails!

It is very important that we are able to contact you. With cold and flu season upon us, we may need to get in touch with you to come and get a student. We are experiencing issues with trying to get in contact with some parents. We are getting recordings that the voicemails are not set up or are full. Thank you!

TRANSPORTATION NOTES

We are having many of our notes come down to us with no name or only first name, no teacher and/or no parent signatures. Change in transportation notes must have a date, child's first and last name, teacher name and parent signature on them. If they are dropped it makes it much easier to locate who it belongs to. I have included a copy of the transportation forms that work wonderfully!

This morning we were visited by local law enforcement due to complaints about cars speeding down Royerton Road. I have been asked to remind parents to slow down and obey the speed limit in the school zone. Officers will begin issuing tickets due to the complaints.

REDBIRD READING CONNECTIONS

“Sound it out”- Not Your Only Option (adapted from RRCNA by Mrs. Jessica Blakely & Mrs. Kendra Hirons)

When helping your child read through a story, there are many things you can say to help them figure out a word. Asking them to “sound it out”, isn’t always the best choice. Being flexible when problem solving a word provides more information to allow a child to be successful.

To help a child use meaning (of the story or illustrations):

- Look at the picture to help you.
- Think about what would make sense in the story.

To help a child use language structure (the way we talk):

- Does that sound right?
- Can we say it that way?

To help a child use information in print (the way the word looks):

- Look at how the word starts.
- Read the words up to the tricky word again.
- Say a little more of the word.
- Does that look right to you?

To help a child use two sources of information:

- Think about what would look right and make sense.
- Think about what would make sense and start like that.

A frustrated reader is a reader who is not going to take necessary risks to improve their skills. If your child is struggling after 5-6 seconds, say the word for them. Praise the child’s attempt at the word by saying:

- I like the way you tried to help yourself.
- You were almost right.
- You noticed it wasn’t right. What did you notice?

A reader is like an athlete. The more a child reads, the better their reading will become.
